LABOR MARKET INFORMATION DIVISION: WHAT WE DO AND WHO WE SERVE

What We Do

Current Economic Statistics
Monthly estimates of labor force and agricultural and non- agricultural employment; economic analysis; uses Geographic Information Systems (GIS) to conduct analyses and create maps.

Employment & Payroll
Universe counts of employment and wages by industry; assigns employer industry codes; employer locations; adhoc requests

Occupational Survey
Administers employment statistics; produces occupational wage, and staffing patterns

Collection
Processing
Analysis
Publication
Website
Consultant Services

Applied Research & Support
Conducts applied research and develops collaborative projects with public and private research organizations; Oversees contract deliverables, responds to data requests, and administers LMID's information dissemination systems; Directs the division's administrative and business operations functions

Regional Analysis & Support
Conducts regional data analyses to support regional strategic planning; produces and provides data products highlighting in-demand industries and occupations; industry and occupational employment projections

Local Information Services
Local experts; provide consultative services to internal and external customers; disseminate monthly press release data; respond to media inquiries; conduct data analysis; delivers presentations and conduct training

LMID Primary Customers

How Information Is Used

Government	Employers	Workforce Development Boards	Economic Development	Education	Job Center Services for Job Seekers	Researchers
Public Policy Development	Wage & Compensation Administration	Strategic Long/Short Term Planning	Community Planning	Academic Program Planning	Job Outlook & Career Planning	Public Policy Decisions
Key Economic Indicators	Development of Worker Skills & Worker Recruitment	Workforce Development	Economic Trend Analysis	Curriculum Development	Skills Assessment & Development	Wage Mobility Studies
Occupational Employment & Wage Estimates	Business Expansion & Relocation	Regional Industry & Occupational Forecasting	Employee Recruitment	Career Counseling	Wage & Employer Information	Applied Research Studies
Identify Growth Industries & Occupations	Mergers & Consolidations	Federal & State Grant Preparation	Business Expansion & Retention	Job Placement Assistance	Occupational Descriptions & Training	Raw Industry & Occupational Data